

MAY 5 — JUNE 8, 2018

In celebration of mothers everywhere, "Mothers and Daughters, a Legacy of Art" exhibit features the art work of Helen (O'Keefe) Ochala, and her four grown daughters, each of them a mother and an artist in her own right.

IHM MOTHERHOUSE GALLERY
610 W. Elm Ave., Monroe, Mich.

Mothers and Daughters

a legacy of art

Helen Ochala is a dedicated still-life and landscape oil painter. Her work shows a deft touch for expressing how light enhances and inhabits our everyday world. Maureen O'Keefe-Strang is a painter, illustrator and poet who has worked in a variety of art forms including mosaics, murals and woodcarving. Susan Robinson started with calligraphy, moved on to art quilting and quilted portraits, then collage and is now immersed in spontaneous oil painting.

Patty O'Keefe Hutton is a painter and art educator who has also worked in basketry, collage and mosaics. Rosemary Denning is a gifted stained glass artist who brings precision, care and skill to each piece of colored glass she shapes.

The opening reception will be held on Saturday, May 5, 3 - 4:30 p.m.

The exhibit is free and open to the public
Monday through Friday from 10:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
